

AB: Viewing

English

Viewing

Affric Highlands | Trees for Life

① Check your understanding.

Where are the Affric Highlands?

- The Affric Highlands are part of the Alps.
- The Affric Highlands represent an area in Scotland.
- They are located in southern Europe.

What part do young people play in the project?

- The project needs the young people to help building a better future.
- Young people are needed because they can plant trees.
- Young people are important because they support the project.

Deepen your knowledge

How to Bring Wilderness Back to Britain
| Rewilding UK |
Back from the Brink

