Here is Donald Trump in briefs
who's jumping with a pogo
stick and we see that he break something transparant who looks like ice.

Beast

Beast is the pseudonym for an anonymous Italy-based street artist. He has been very active on the streets of Europe and United States since 2009, with a focus on stencils at first and later at creating digital collages aiming to highlight political and social issues.

Description

- In the lower corner we can see that he is wearing black and white sneakers, we can also see that he have an pogo stick in his hands and he is wearing only a short pants he have white hair in middle of the picture we can see donald trump without so much clothes doing maybe sport with the pogo stick
- In the background there is a simple white wall
- In the middle of this piece of art, there is donald trump in briefs who's jumping on a pogo stick.
- In the lower part of the art, there is ice broken because of Trump's Jumps.

Detailed analysis

- This piece of art denounce the fact that Donald Trump is destroying the ice floe represented by the broken glass.
- In fact, USA is the world's biggest polluter and the pollution increase the temperature which melts the pack ice.

We think that this work is related to our work of art because we see that Trump is destroying the ice pack, which is the home of the polar bear.
